THE

this year . . . And Vaughan's homer was his first of the year.
 There were some Brooklyn fans in the crowd of 28,963 cash customers but the roar that greeted Young's grand slam showed Manhattan rooters to be in the vast majority . . . So did the counter neckling Dursocher received from the fans after he had beeted about Umpire George Barr's decision on a two-and-two pitch to Mize in the first inning . . . It was a low pitch which Mize started to swing at . . .
 Barr ruled that the big guy didn't come around with his bat, consequently Barr's ears burned.
 Reiser was out of action exactly a week . . . Pete's first-inning double was a "bloopier" that floated over the Jürges dome and landed in short left . . . Until yesterday, the Dodgers had won six of their last seven games with the Giants.
